Resurrection Of Life, Resurrection Of Damnation

John 5:28-29 Marvel not at this: for the hour is coming, in the which all that are in the graves shall hear his voice, And shall come forth; they that have done good, unto the resurrection of life; and they that have done evil, unto the resurrection of damnation.

Resurrection from the Greek Text; G386 ἀνάστασις From G450; a standing up again, that is, (literally) a resurrection from death (individual, general or by implication (its author)), or (figuratively) a (moral) recovery (of spiritual truth).

Unto, (meaning concerning), the resurrection of life and damnation. A standing up again. A resurrection for those that have chosen life, (love), and those that are to stand again from the resurrection of death, to the resurrection of life. A chance "again" for a moral recovery of spiritual truth.

Damnation from the Greek Text; G2920 κρίσις (Subjectively or objectively, for or against); by extension a tribunal; by implication justice (specifically divine law).

Daniel 12:2 And many of them that sleep in the dust of the earth shall awake, some to everlasting life, and some to shame and everlasting contempt.

Everlasting in the Hebrew Text; H5769 עֹלָם From H5956; properly concealed, that is, the vanishing point; generally time out of mind (past or future), that is, (practically) eternity.

Contempt in the Hebrew Text; H1860 דֵּרָאוֹן From an unused root (meaning to repulse); an object of aversion.

Everlasting contempt meaning, "something" (the truth) has been concealed to a vanishing point where time is not a factor.
Vanishing point is the point where resurrection has been growing smaller or increasingly faint disappears altogether…...into life, free from death.
All in the grave shall hear his voice thus awakening those of damnation to everlasting life.
